NOVA SCOTIA SETTLEMENT

- (a) Capt. Adam Fralick (settled Rawdon Township) and John Fralick (settled Rawdon Township)
- (b) George Fralick (settled in Lunenburg County)

1. (a) CAPT. ADAM FRALICK (Wife Ann Snell)

On one of his land petitions in the Public Archives, Ottawa, Adam gives the following information.

In 1783 he went from South Carolina to Nova Scotia where he took up 500 acres in 1784. He states that he was a Captain in the 5th Regiment of Militia under Colonel John Cotton and also in a Corps commanded by Colonel Thomas Pearson. He remained in Nova Scotia until 1797. In that year he came to Upper Canada.

He petitions March 16, 1807 to have his name put on the U.E. List. He resides in Matilda township, Dundas County on the River near Iroquois, Ontario, not far from Cornwall.

He petitions again in the same year (1807) and was put on the U.E. List and gives his residence as Williamsburgh near Cornwall, Ont. Colonel John Crysler is his agent and signs an affidavit for him. This is the John Crysler of the War of 1812 on whose farm the engagement of the same name was fought near the present site of Upper Canada Village.

Adam's children all petition for land as residents of Williamsburgh and Cornwall.

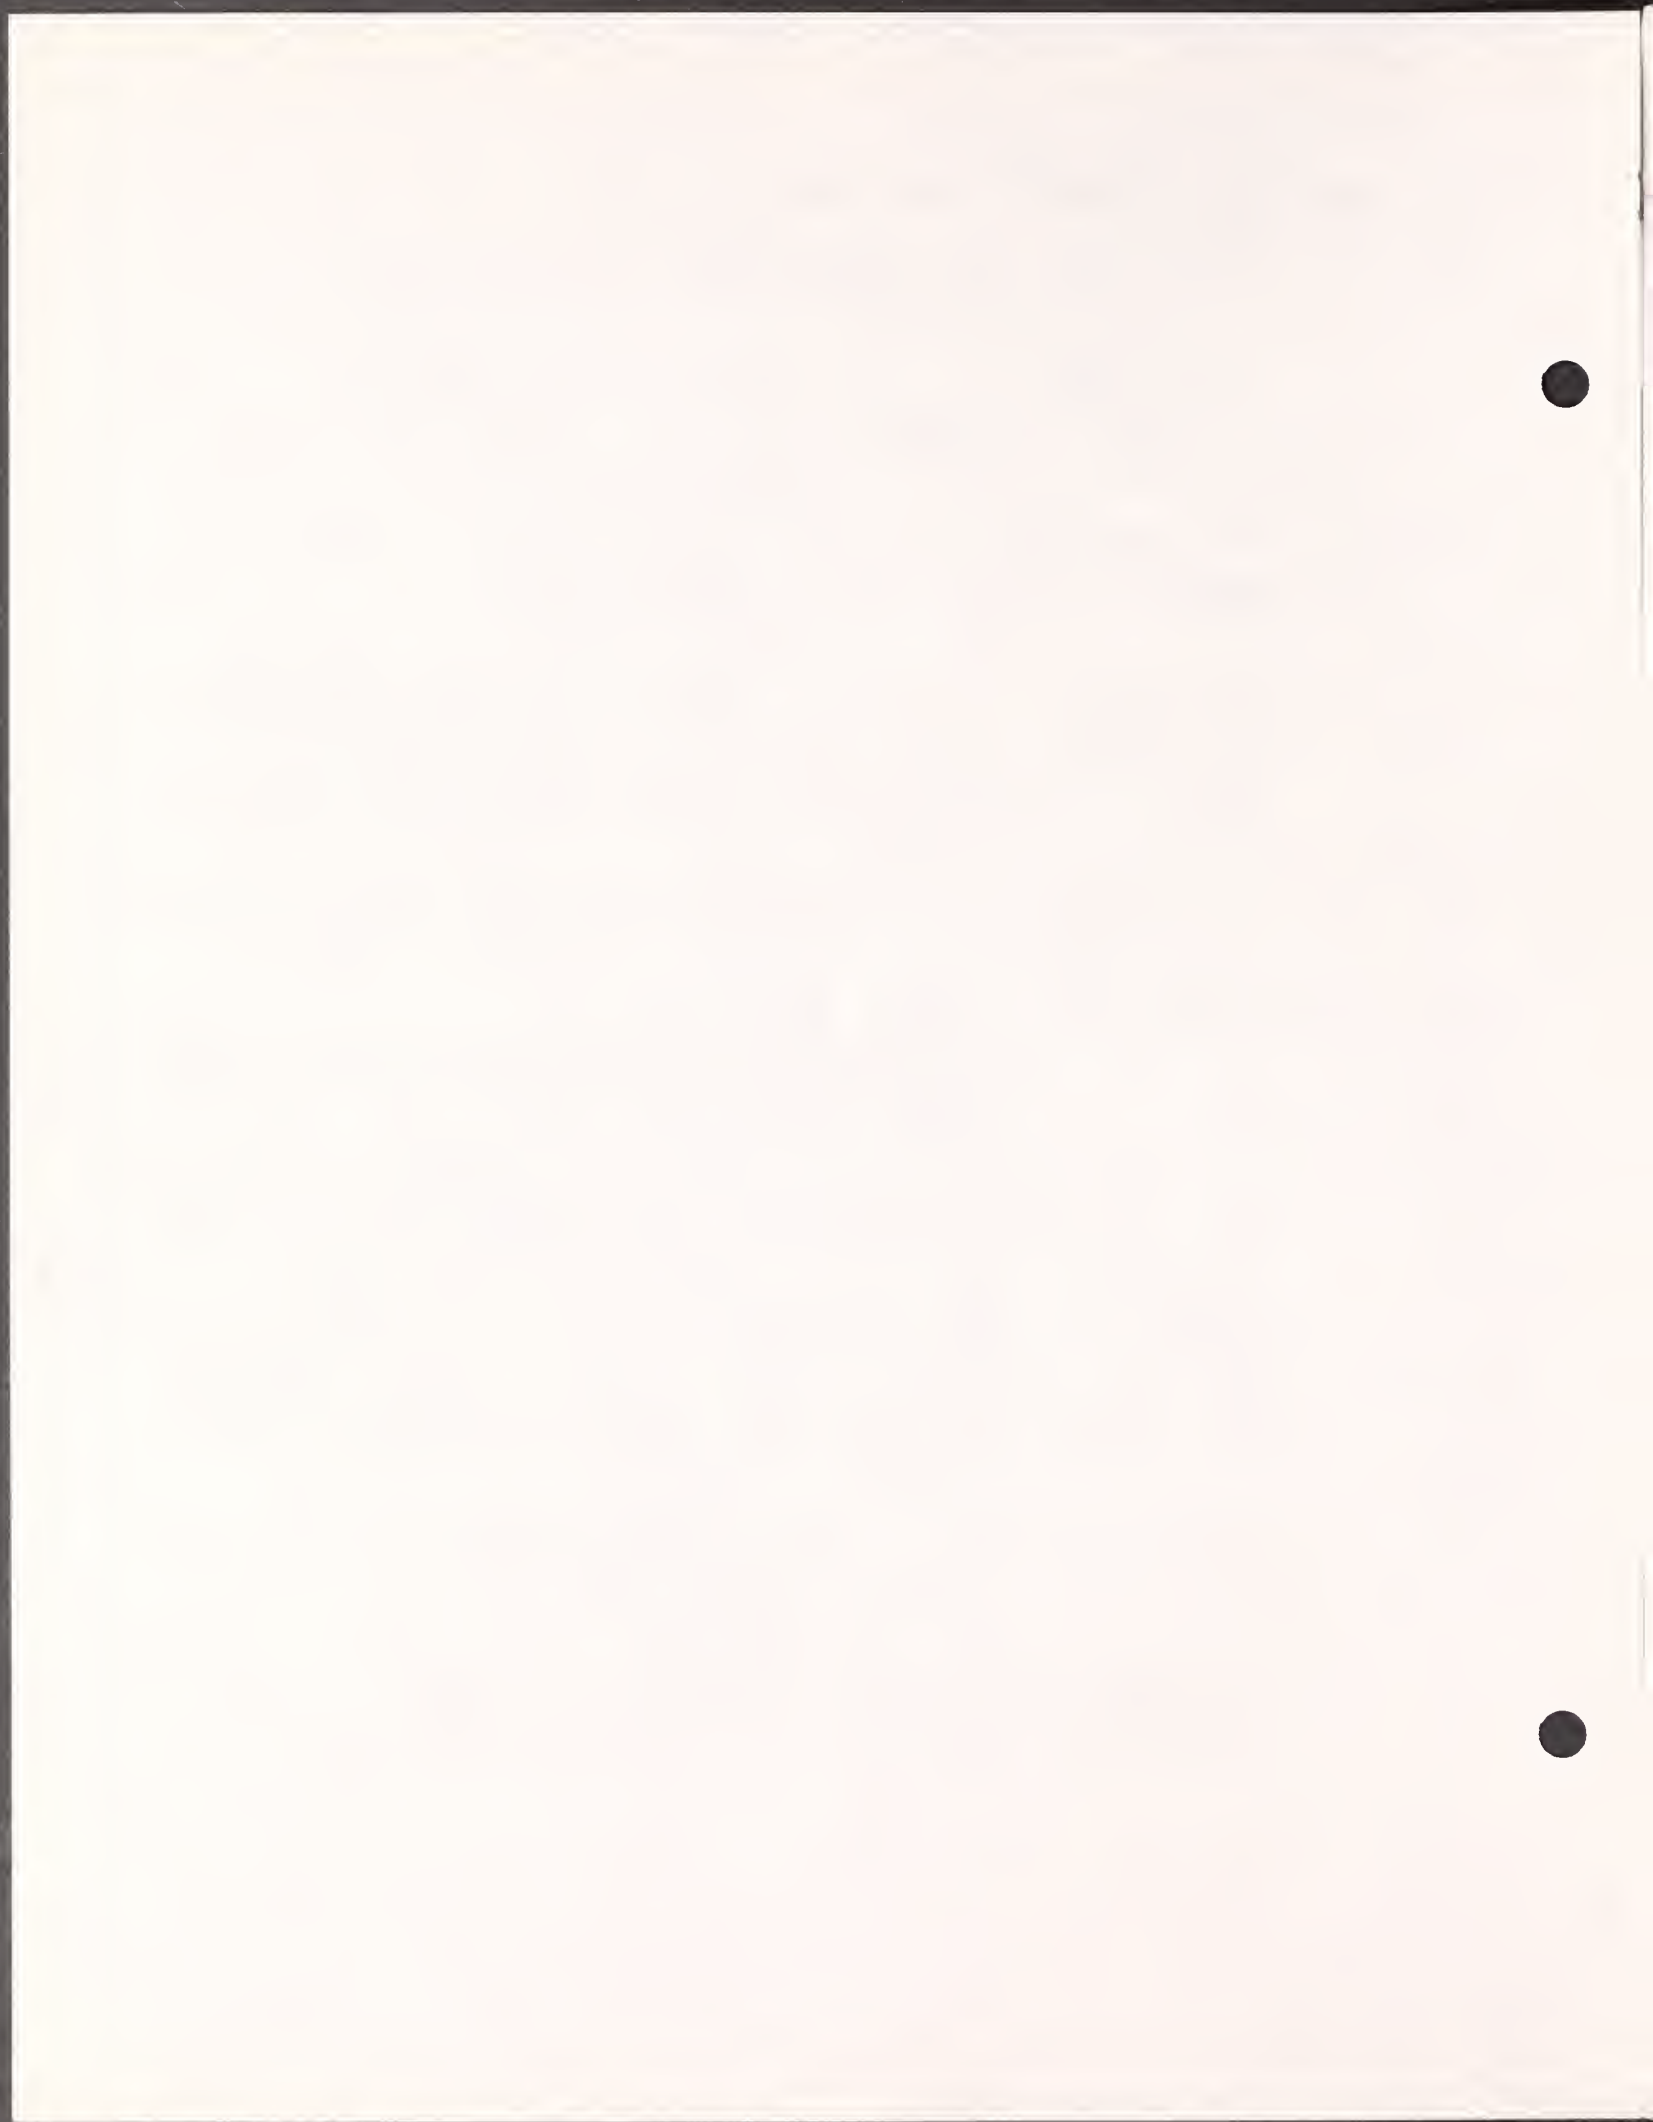

- Adam's Children:
1. Margaret born 1789
 2. Susanah married John P. Shaver
 3. John married Peggy Borin daughter of Luke Borin.(or Boun)
 4. Catherine married Philip Servas
 5. David born 1796.

The children petitioned for land starting in 1796 and continued until 1810. They were resident near Cornwall in these years.

In the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, Halifax, we find some data on Capt. Adam. He received 500 acres of land with John Bond and others on the Eastern Line of Newport Township, which was then in Halifax County. He got his grant in 1784. They were Loyalists from east Florida. They fled to Florida from South Carolina (see Claim #580 of John Withrow further on).

In a petition of John Yeadon, he mentions that he bought a lot in Hants County from Adam in 1797 for 10 pounds. This would have been just before he sold out and came to Upper Canada.

In 1811 in Lunenburg County, John Frelick received 400 acres, George 300 and Jacob 300. Since Adam had left for Upper Canada these were probably not his sons. We find these names in the family of George who came on the ship Gale (See George, Nova Scotia).

There are many records of John and Adam Fralick in the years from 1783 to 1797. After that year they dropped out of all the Nova Scotia records. I think John was a brother of Adam's. There is nothing to indicate that John came to Upper Canada with Adam. Adam had a son John but since Adam's children were born as late as 1789 (Margaret) it is not likely that John would have been old enough to hold public office at the same time as his father, which the records say he did.

We have some interesting records that mention John and Adam in Nova Scotia as follow further on in this note.

Adam was put on the U.E. List in 1807 and his residence is given as sophiasburgh and ameliasburgh townships in Prince Edward County, Ont.

How he got into the Prince Edward area, I don't know. This may be an error on the U.E. List or he may have been staying for a time with Fralick's in the Picton area. He was at Cornwall from 1797 to 1807. After that we lose sight of him and no records of him appear anywhere.

show

One clue did/xxx up, In Smiths "Canada" published about 1840, one Adam Fralick is listed as a subscriber in Drummondville. This town is on the south shore in Quebec. Whether he was still living or not in 1840 is questionable. The reference could be to another Adam. In any event, no records of Fralicks exist in the Cornwall area and none for Adam in the Napanee, Belleville, Picton area.

When Adam was put on the U.E. List his wife's name was given as Matilda. His wife was Ann Snell on his Nova Scotia records.

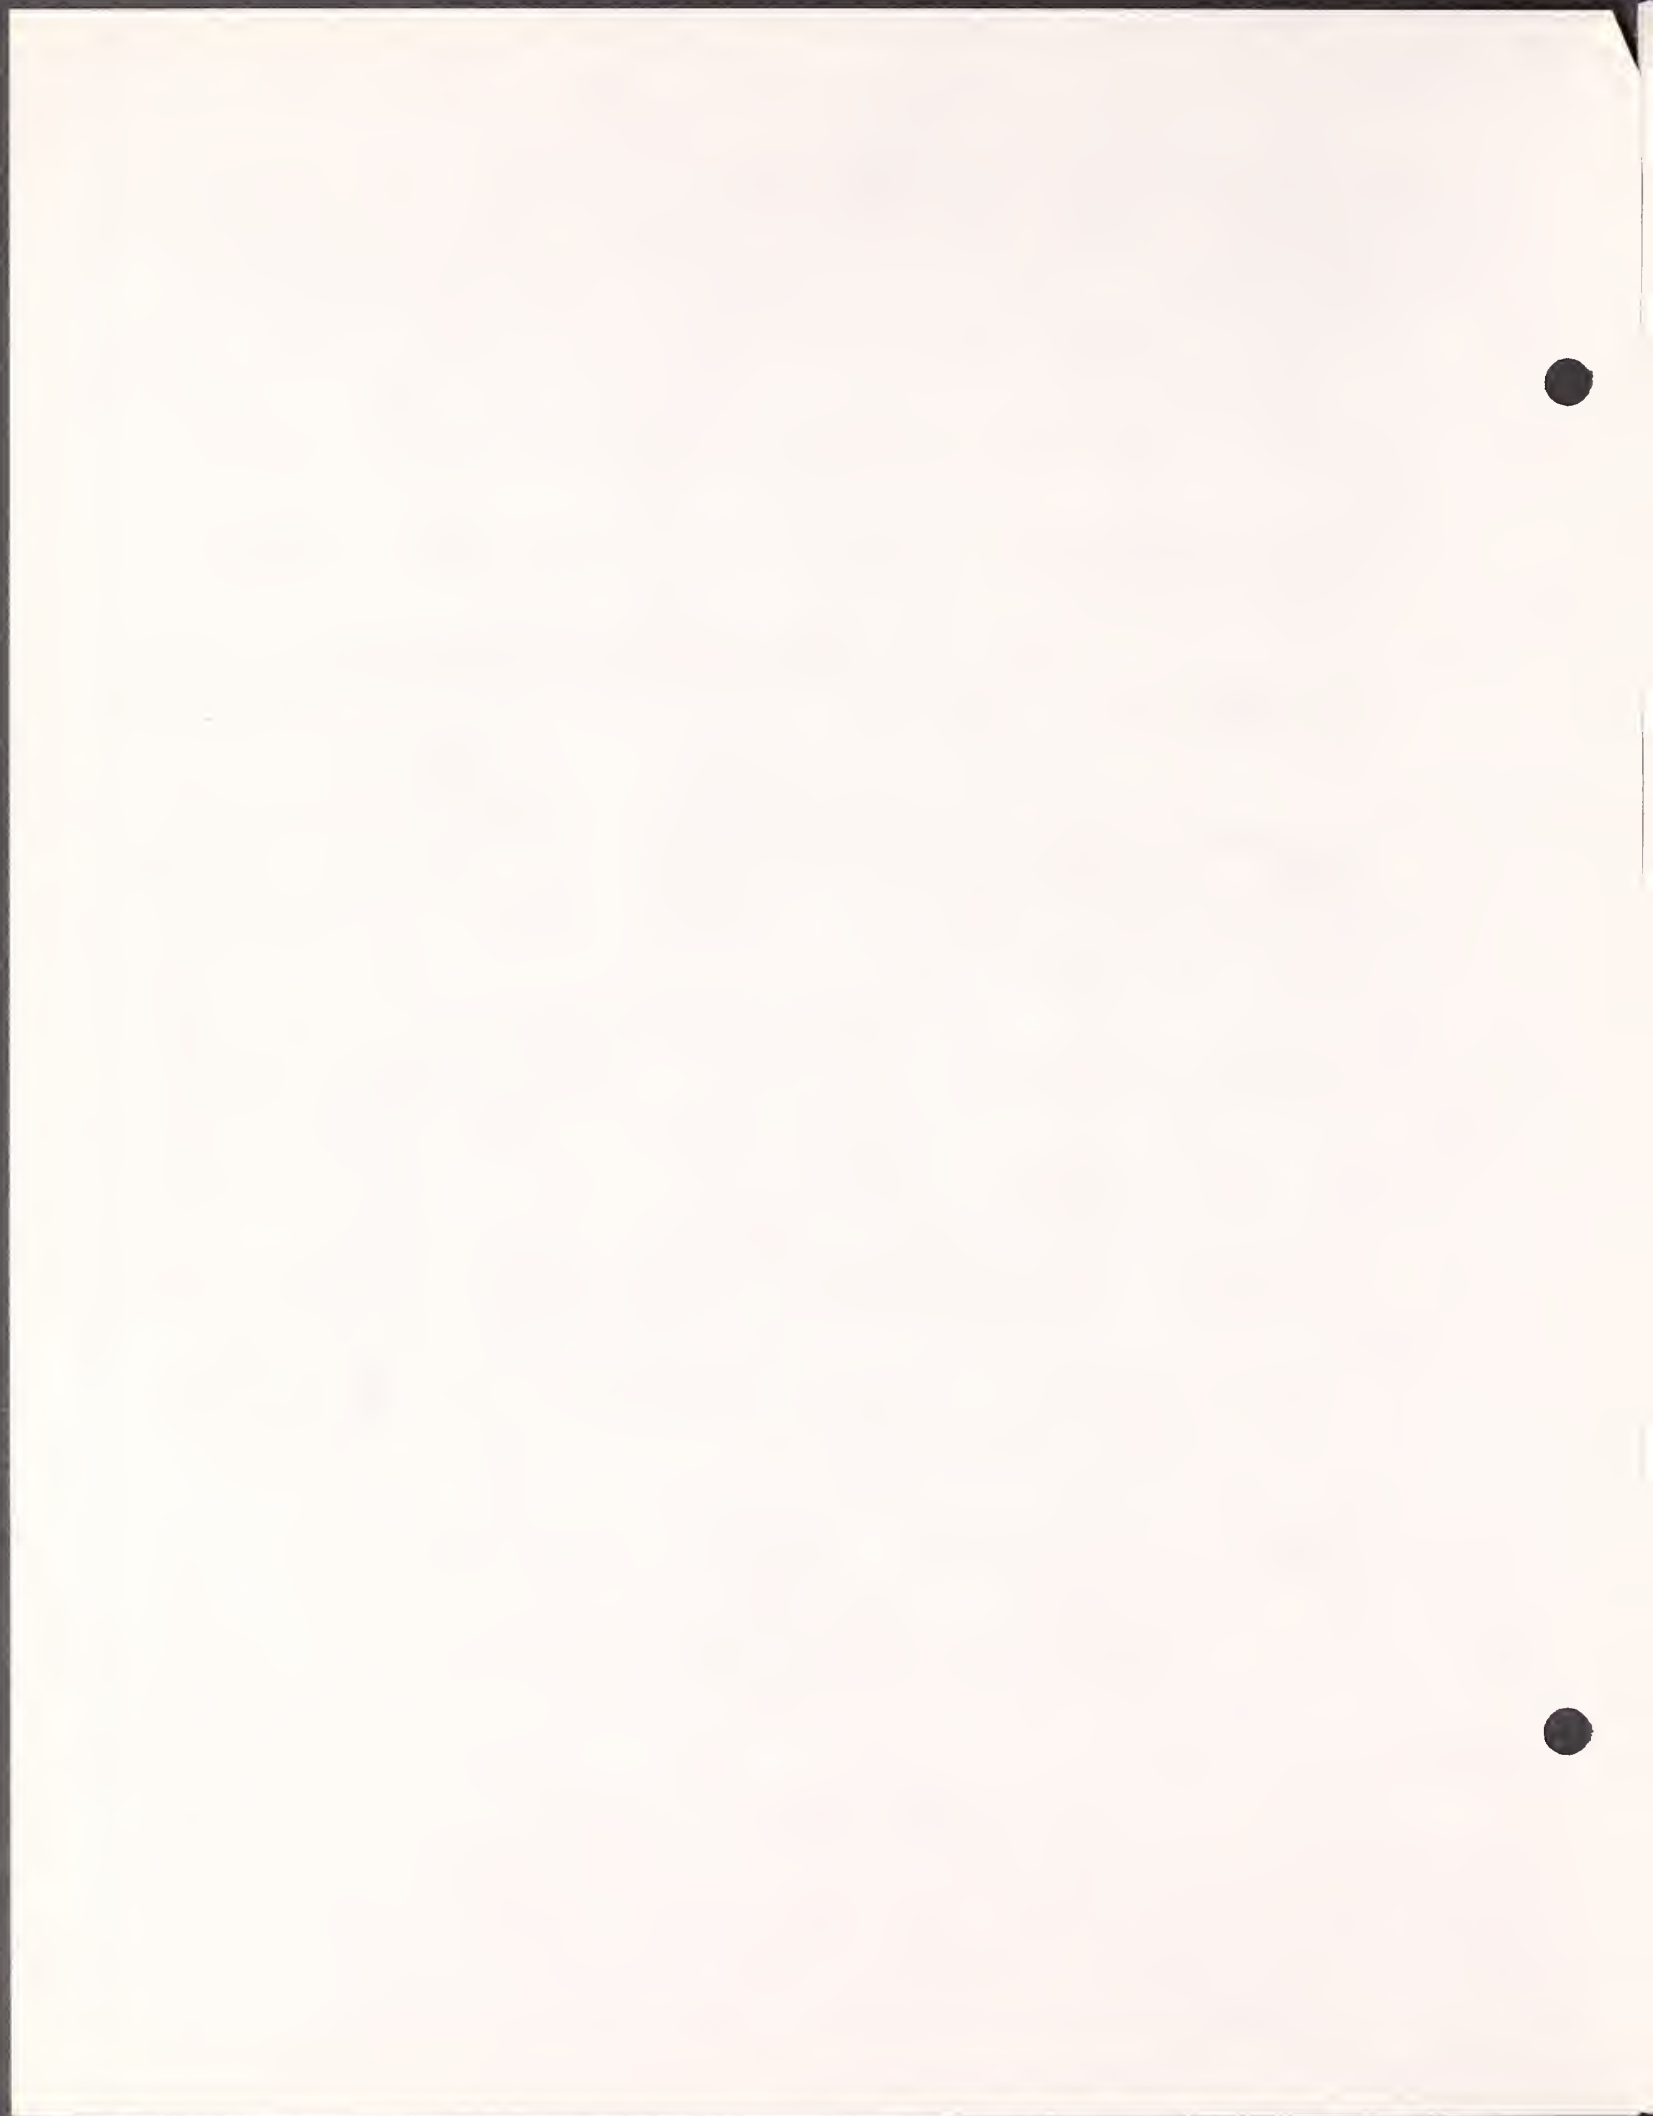

The following records throw some light on the activity of John and Adam in the early days in Nova Scotia. Most of these records are in the Public Archives in Halifax.

Appendix V

The above describes the grant of 23000 acres to the Loyalists and names them. The land was Rawdon Township. 18th on the list is Adam Fraelick. Rawdon was named after Lord Rawdon and the settlers were soldiers who served under him. Rawdon was afterwards named Marquis of Hastings. He was in South Carolina during the war and this accounts for Adam serving in his Regiment. It is interesting to note that we have a Rawdon Township in Hastings County in Ontario here near Belleville.

Reference - Poll Tax 1791-1797 for Rawdon

Some on the list are shown as owning live stock and are charged more. Adam is not shown as owning livestock in 1791.

In the year 1792 Adam paid poll tax of 5 shillings and had 2 horses, 6 cows.

Again in 1793, Adam Fralick 7 cows, 2 horses, 12 sheep, tax
 3 shillings, 9 pence.

And in 1794, Adam, horses 2, cows 5, sheep 14, tax 3 sh. 4 p.
 John, horses 1, cows 1, tax 1 sh. 6 p.

And in 1795. John, Cows 2, sheep 7, tax 1 sh. 9-1/2 p.
 Adam, Horses 2, cows 6, sheep 11, tax 3 sh. 5-1/2 p.

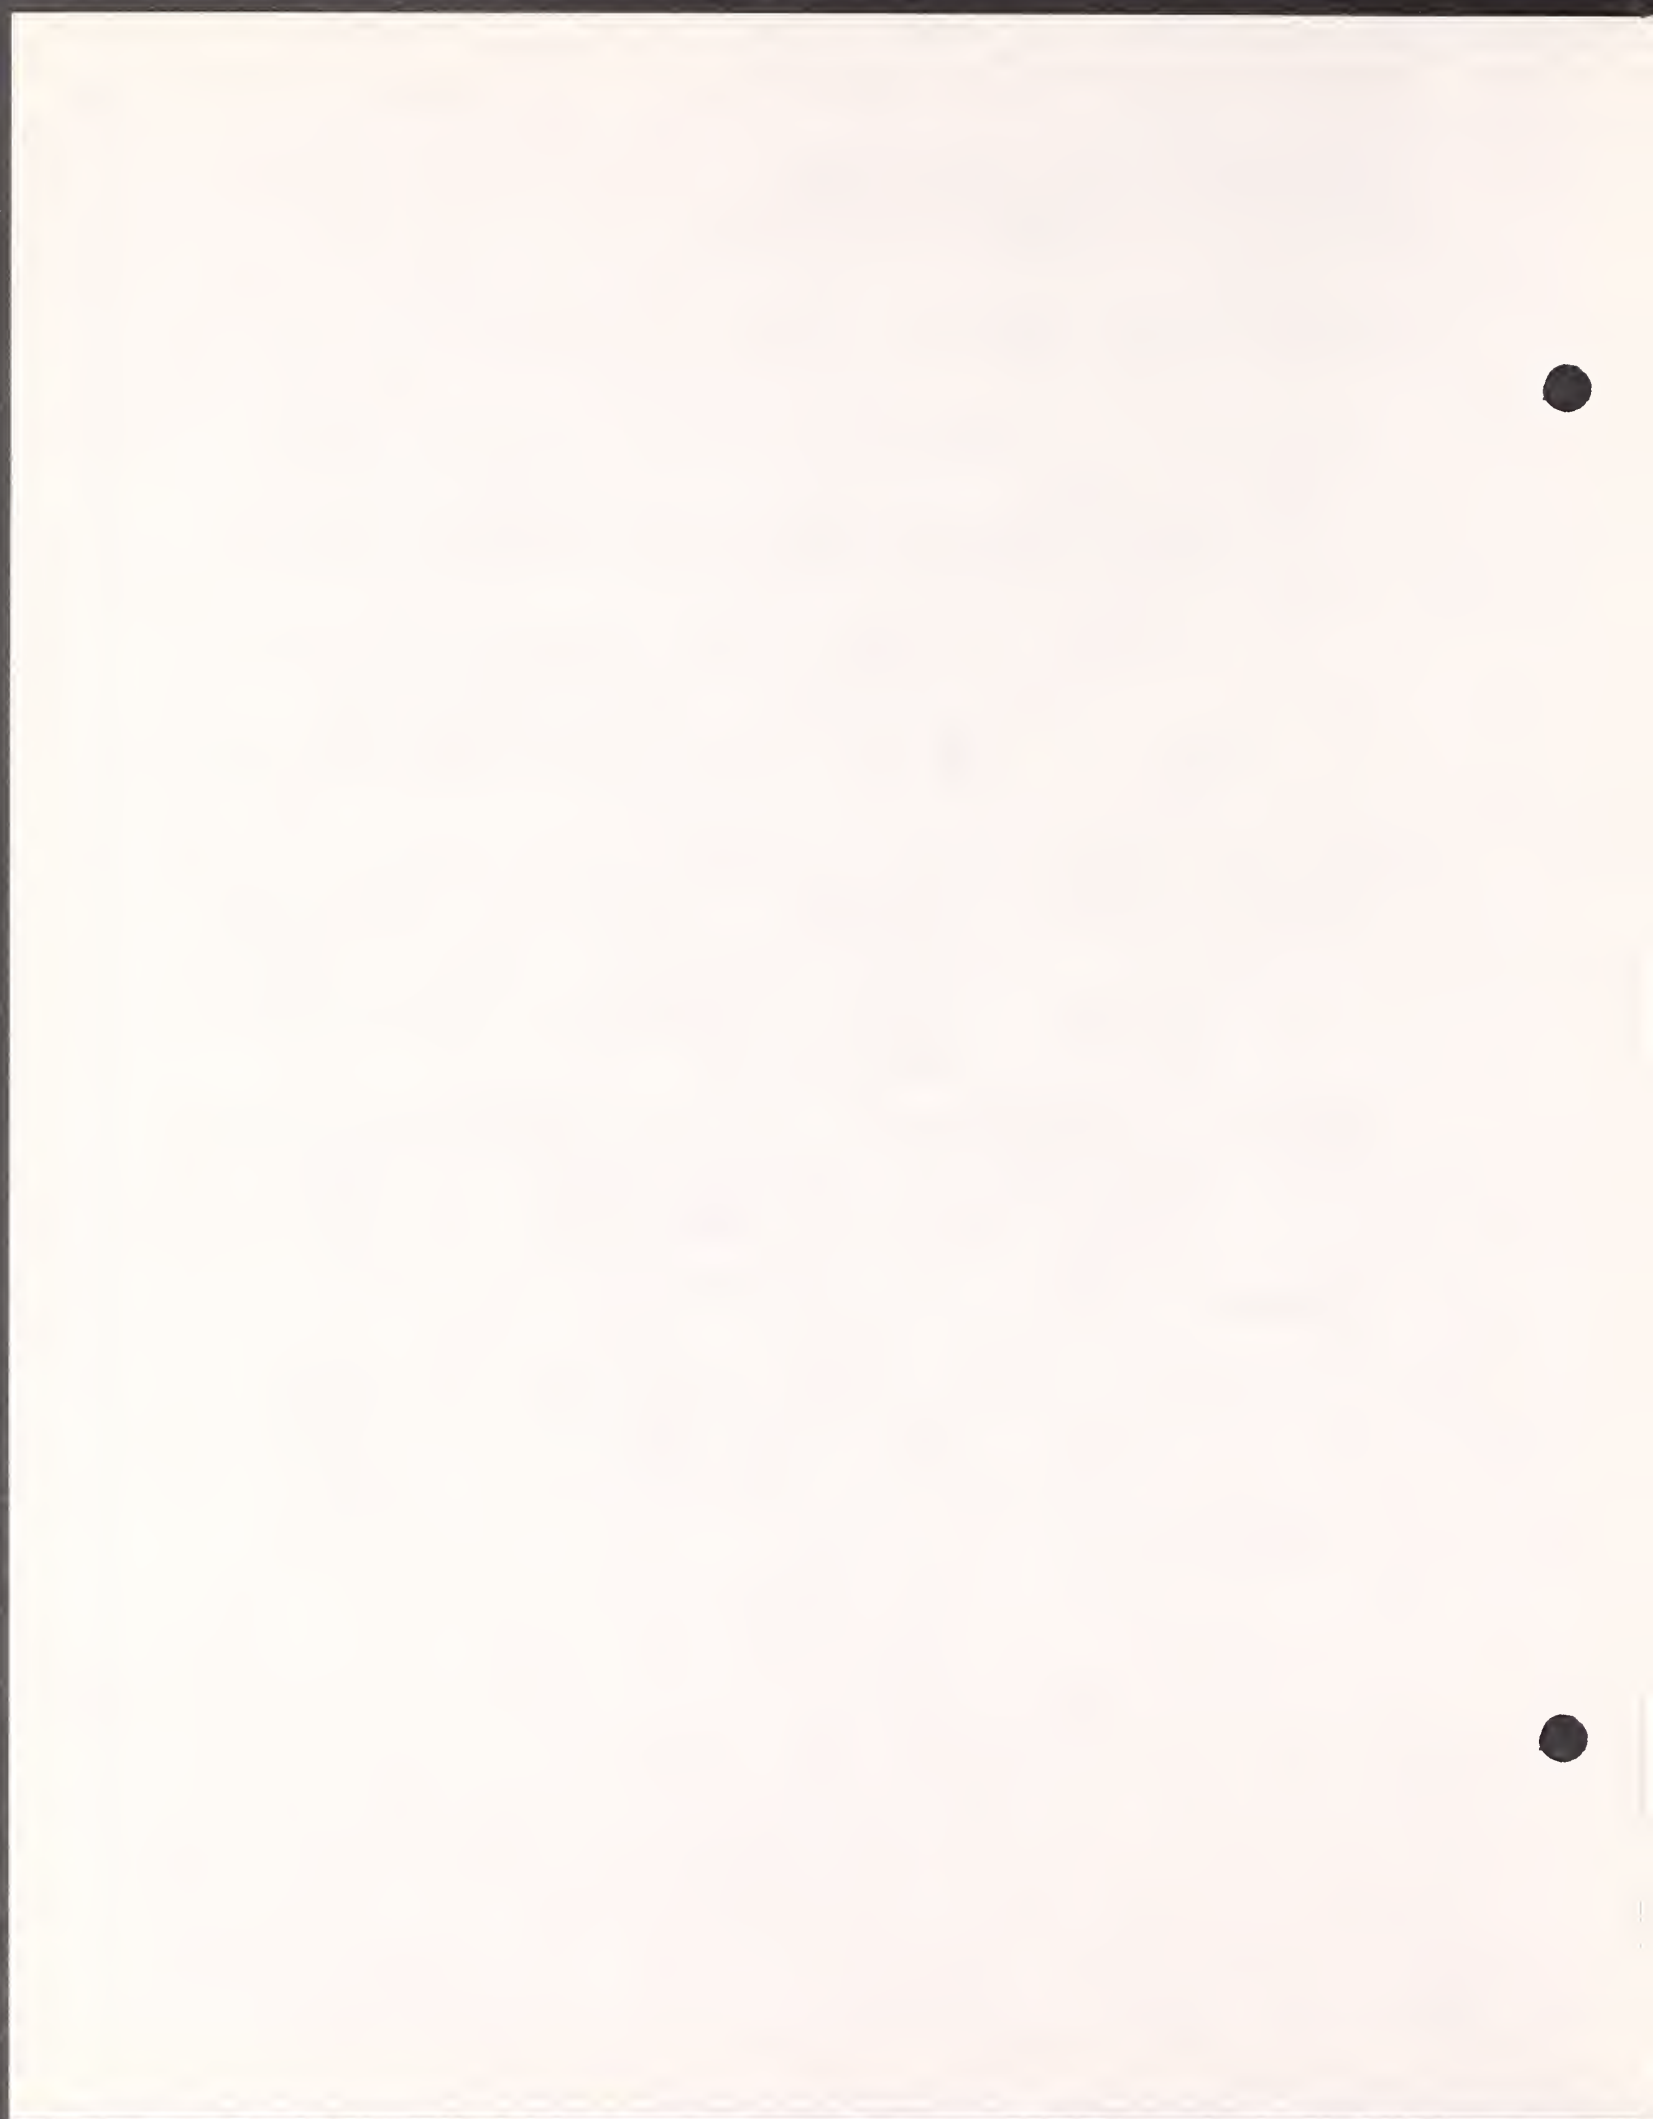

Variations in the name in the various families in Nova Scotia are very much the same as in Ontario/ The Documents and records show the following in Nova Scotia:

I don't know how this claim got into the Ontario Archives. It may be that Adam had to give this background when he came to Ontario in 1797 and applied for land here.

P. 168 A NEW CLAIM

06. Evidence on the Claim of ADAM FRALICK late of S. Carolina. Says he resided at Rawdon Township & never knew of any Act for the relief of the Loyalists until June, 1784, when he understood it was too (late to) lodge a claim.

He is a native of S. Carolina. When the War broke out he lived in 69 District. Says he took arms under Gen. Cunningham in 1775 or 1776. He afterwards continued in the County, until Charlestown was taken. Says he never carried arms with the Americans, but was fined for not serving and was confined for 6 weeks, and was released to drive a waggon for the Rebels, which he did for 10 days.

After he joined the British he acted as Lt. of Militia under Gen. Cunningham & afterwards as a Capt. under Coll. Cotton until the Evacuation when he came to N. Scotia, & now resides at Rawdon. Produces Commission of Capt. & Lt. of Militia in 1781 & 1782.

Property.

200 acres of Land on Sevine River, 96 District. Produces

Conveyance from Manwell Miller in Considn. of 1,000 pounds S. Car. Cury. Conveys 200 acres of Land. This is dated 26th Nov., 1776.

Says he gave 500 pounds S. Car. in Horses, Cattle & 200 Acres of land in Orangeburgh District for this and says he got Possession of it.

16 acres of this was cleared and a House on it. He claims 10 sh. pr. acre Strg. for this.

27 Head of Cattle on this Farm.....	40.10.0
7 Horses at 7 pounds.....	49.0.0
140 Hd. Hogs at 10 sh. pr. Head.....	70.0.0

50 Bushels Wheat.....	7.10.0
	202. 0.0
Fine pd. the Rebels.....	21. 8.0

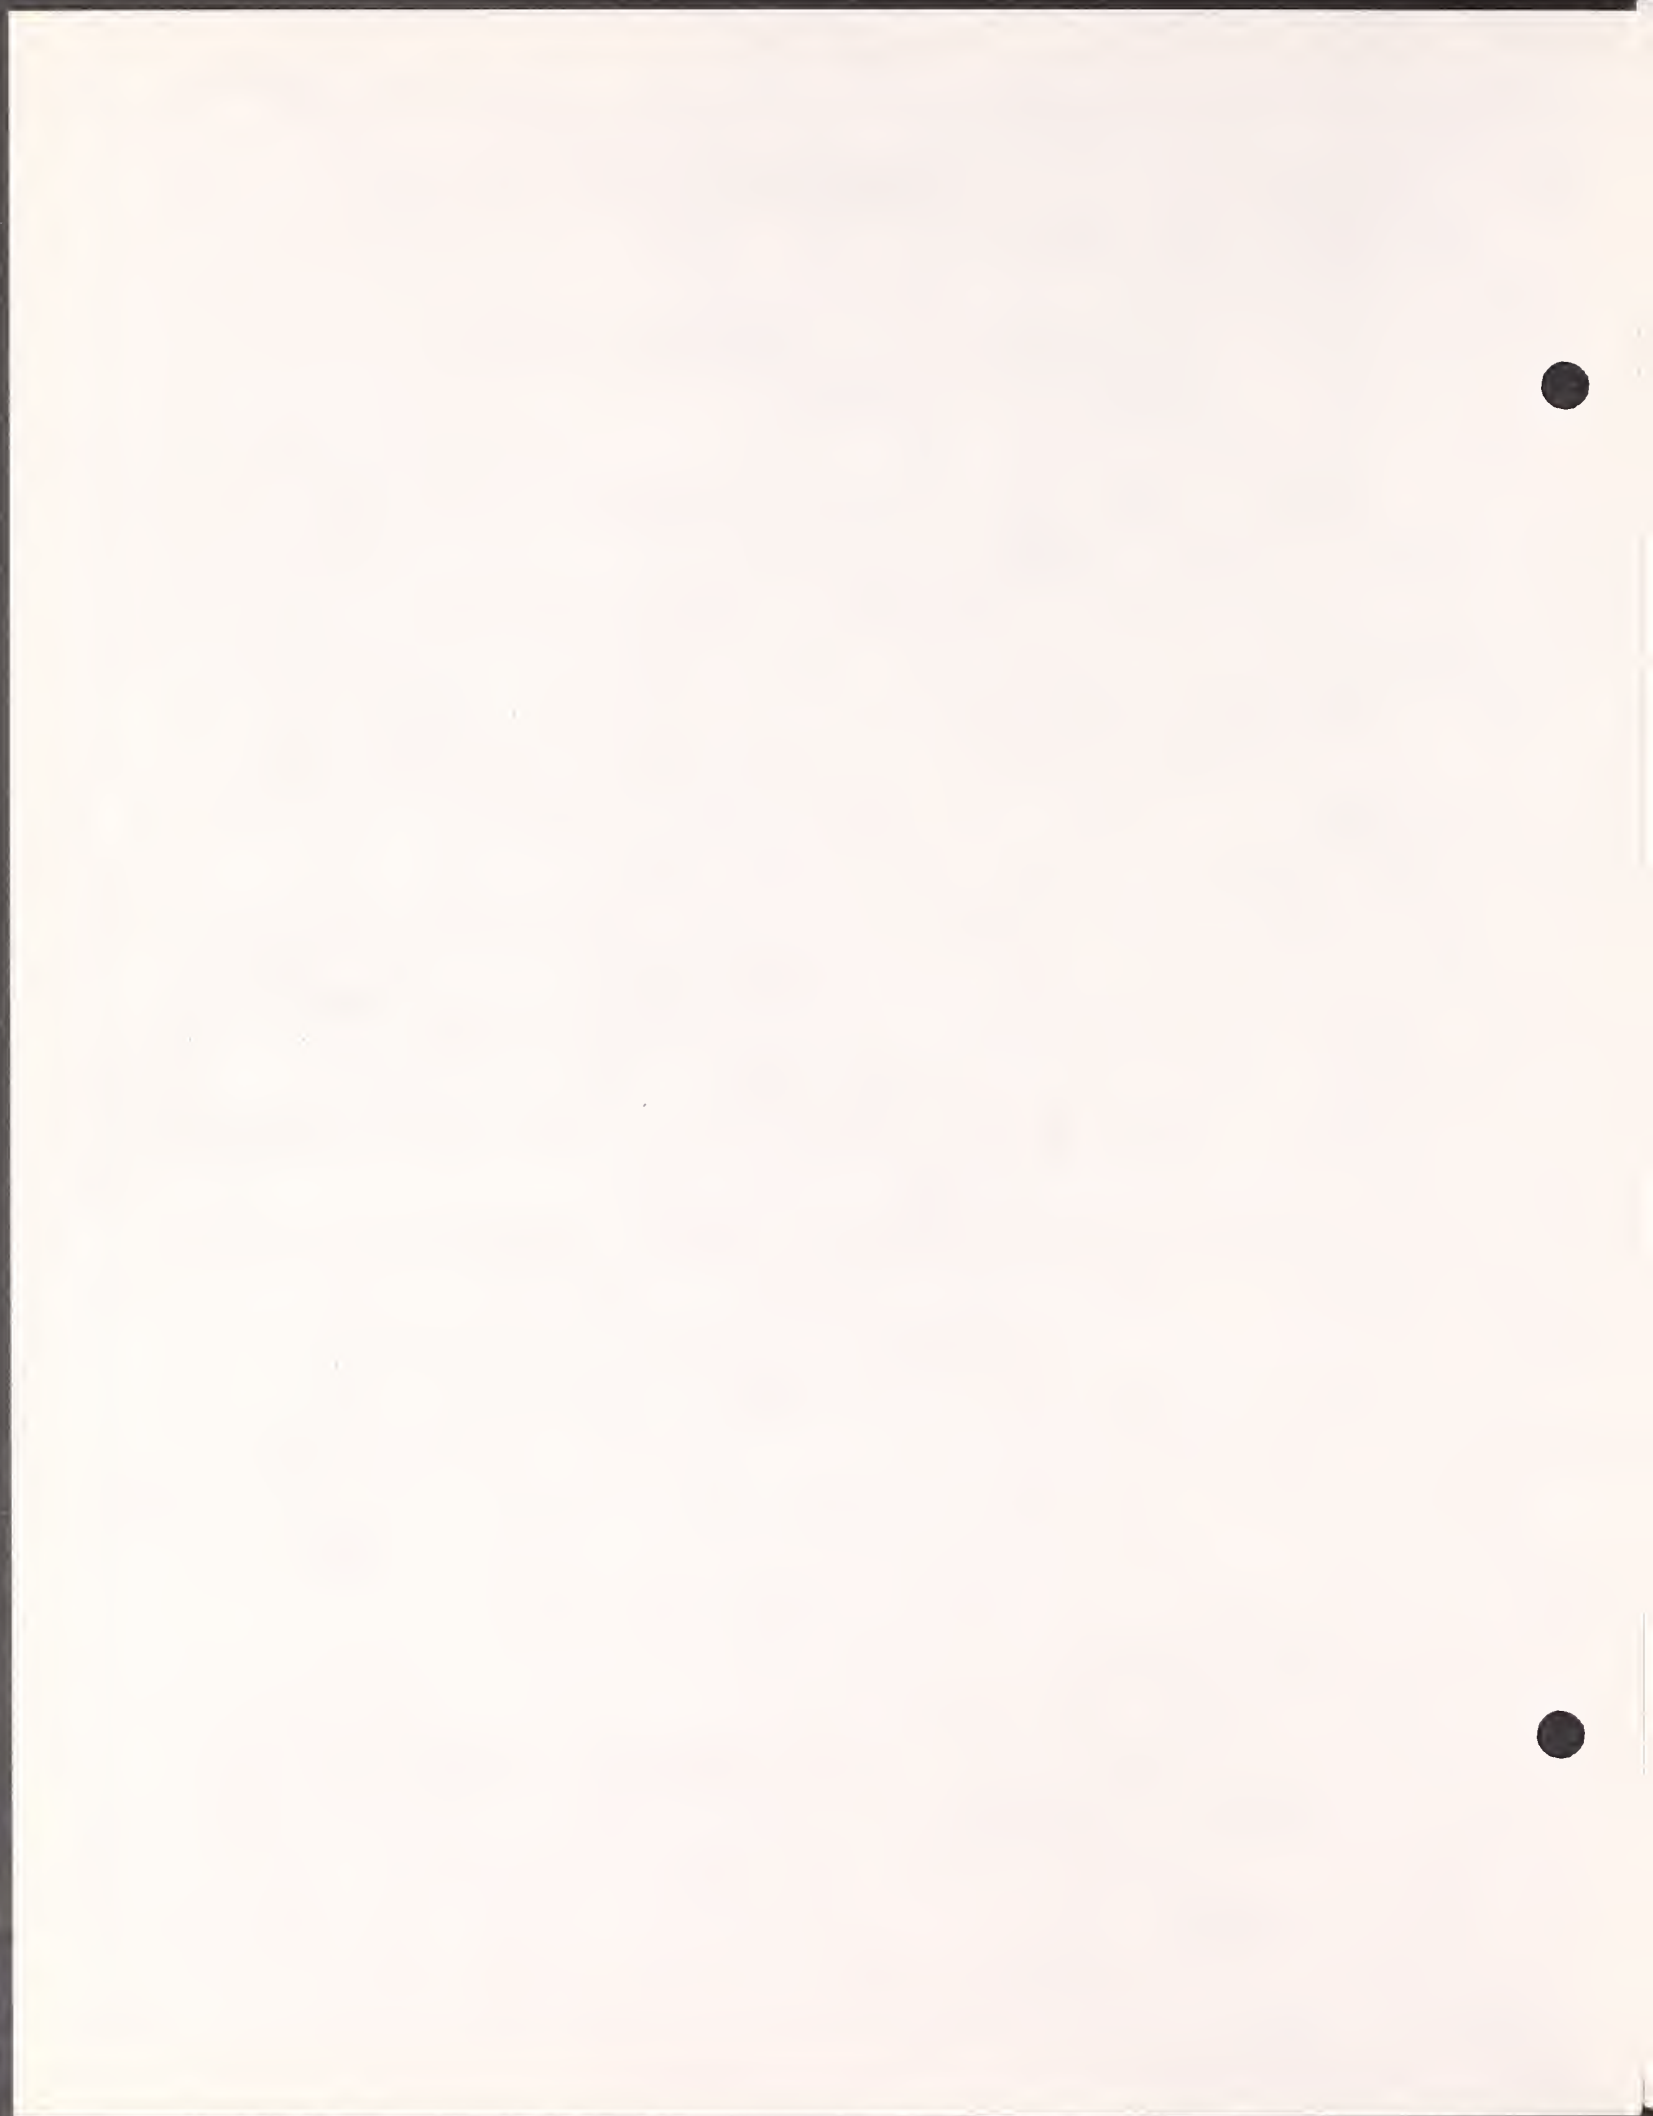

He cannot tell what is become of his Lands.

Witness Jacob Withrow, Sworn:

Knew Claimt. before he joined the British - believes he served in the American Army & knows he served in the British Army.

He lived on Lands near his father's house. There was a clearance on it. A small field.

He had some stock - he cannot speak to the quantity.

P. 170

A NEW CLAIM

99. Evidence on the Claim of George Snell, late of S. Carolina.

Claimant Sworn:

He claims in right of his Father, Barnet Snell, who died in 1781, on James River. Claimant appears to be about 17 years of age. He assigns as a reason for his not having claimed under the former Act that he never heard of the former Act -- but he likewise appears to have been an infant.

Says his Father was always Loyal, & died on James Island in 1781. He came with his Brothers in Law, Adam Fralick & John Thornton, to this Country in 1781. He now resides in Rawdon.

Produces his Father's Will without a date. He left 4 sons, Christopher, disinherited by the Will; Claimt: David Snell, in Rawdon: Danl. Snell, do.: Nancy Fralick, in Rawdon: Mary Thornton, in St. Johns. N. Brunswick: Catherine, in St. John's.

100 acres on Cuffy Town Creek. He bought it from Danl. Meighler before the War. He cannot say what he gave for it. About 20 acres were cleared, with a Log House & Barn. This is left to Claimt. by the Will.

150 acres adjoining, he bought it at same time from Danl. Meighler. Says the whole lands lay together. This is left by the will to David & Danl.

All the Personal property is by the Will left to the three sisters, excepting a sorell mare left to Claimt., which was taken by our own Militia, worth nine pounds Strg.

8 head of Horses.....	72. 0.0
23 Cattle	34.10.0
20 Hogs	5. 0.0
Farming Tools	10. 0.0

Furniture	10. 0.0
60 Bushels Wheat	9. 0.0
	140.10.0

P. 171 Witness, Adam Fralick, Sworn:

He is married to Ann Snell, sister to Claimt. (George Snell). Says the deceased Barnet Snell was always Loyal. He died on James Island in 1781, and Knows the paper produced to have been his last Will. Says all the family are satisfied that G. Snell should claim for & receive Compensation for the whole.

His whole property was 250 acres on Cuffy town Creek. He bought it in 1770 from Danl. Meighler. He gave about 300 pounds S.Car. and three Horses for it. He made all the improvts. on it himself & built a House & Barn. About 25 acres were cleared in 1775. Thinks the cleared was well worth 1 pound Strg. pr. acre; the uncleared was worth 10 Sh. Strg. pr. acre.

By the Will the House & improvements went to George, the unimproved part to David & Danl.

All the Stock Claimed was left behind. It was willed to the three daughters, who are satisfied that George shall Claim for them.

A Sorell mare left to George was taken by the British & lost. Thinks she was worth 9 pounds Strg.

P. 693. Claim 580 Case of John Withrow, late of South Carolina.

Adam Fralick, Wits. Sworn.

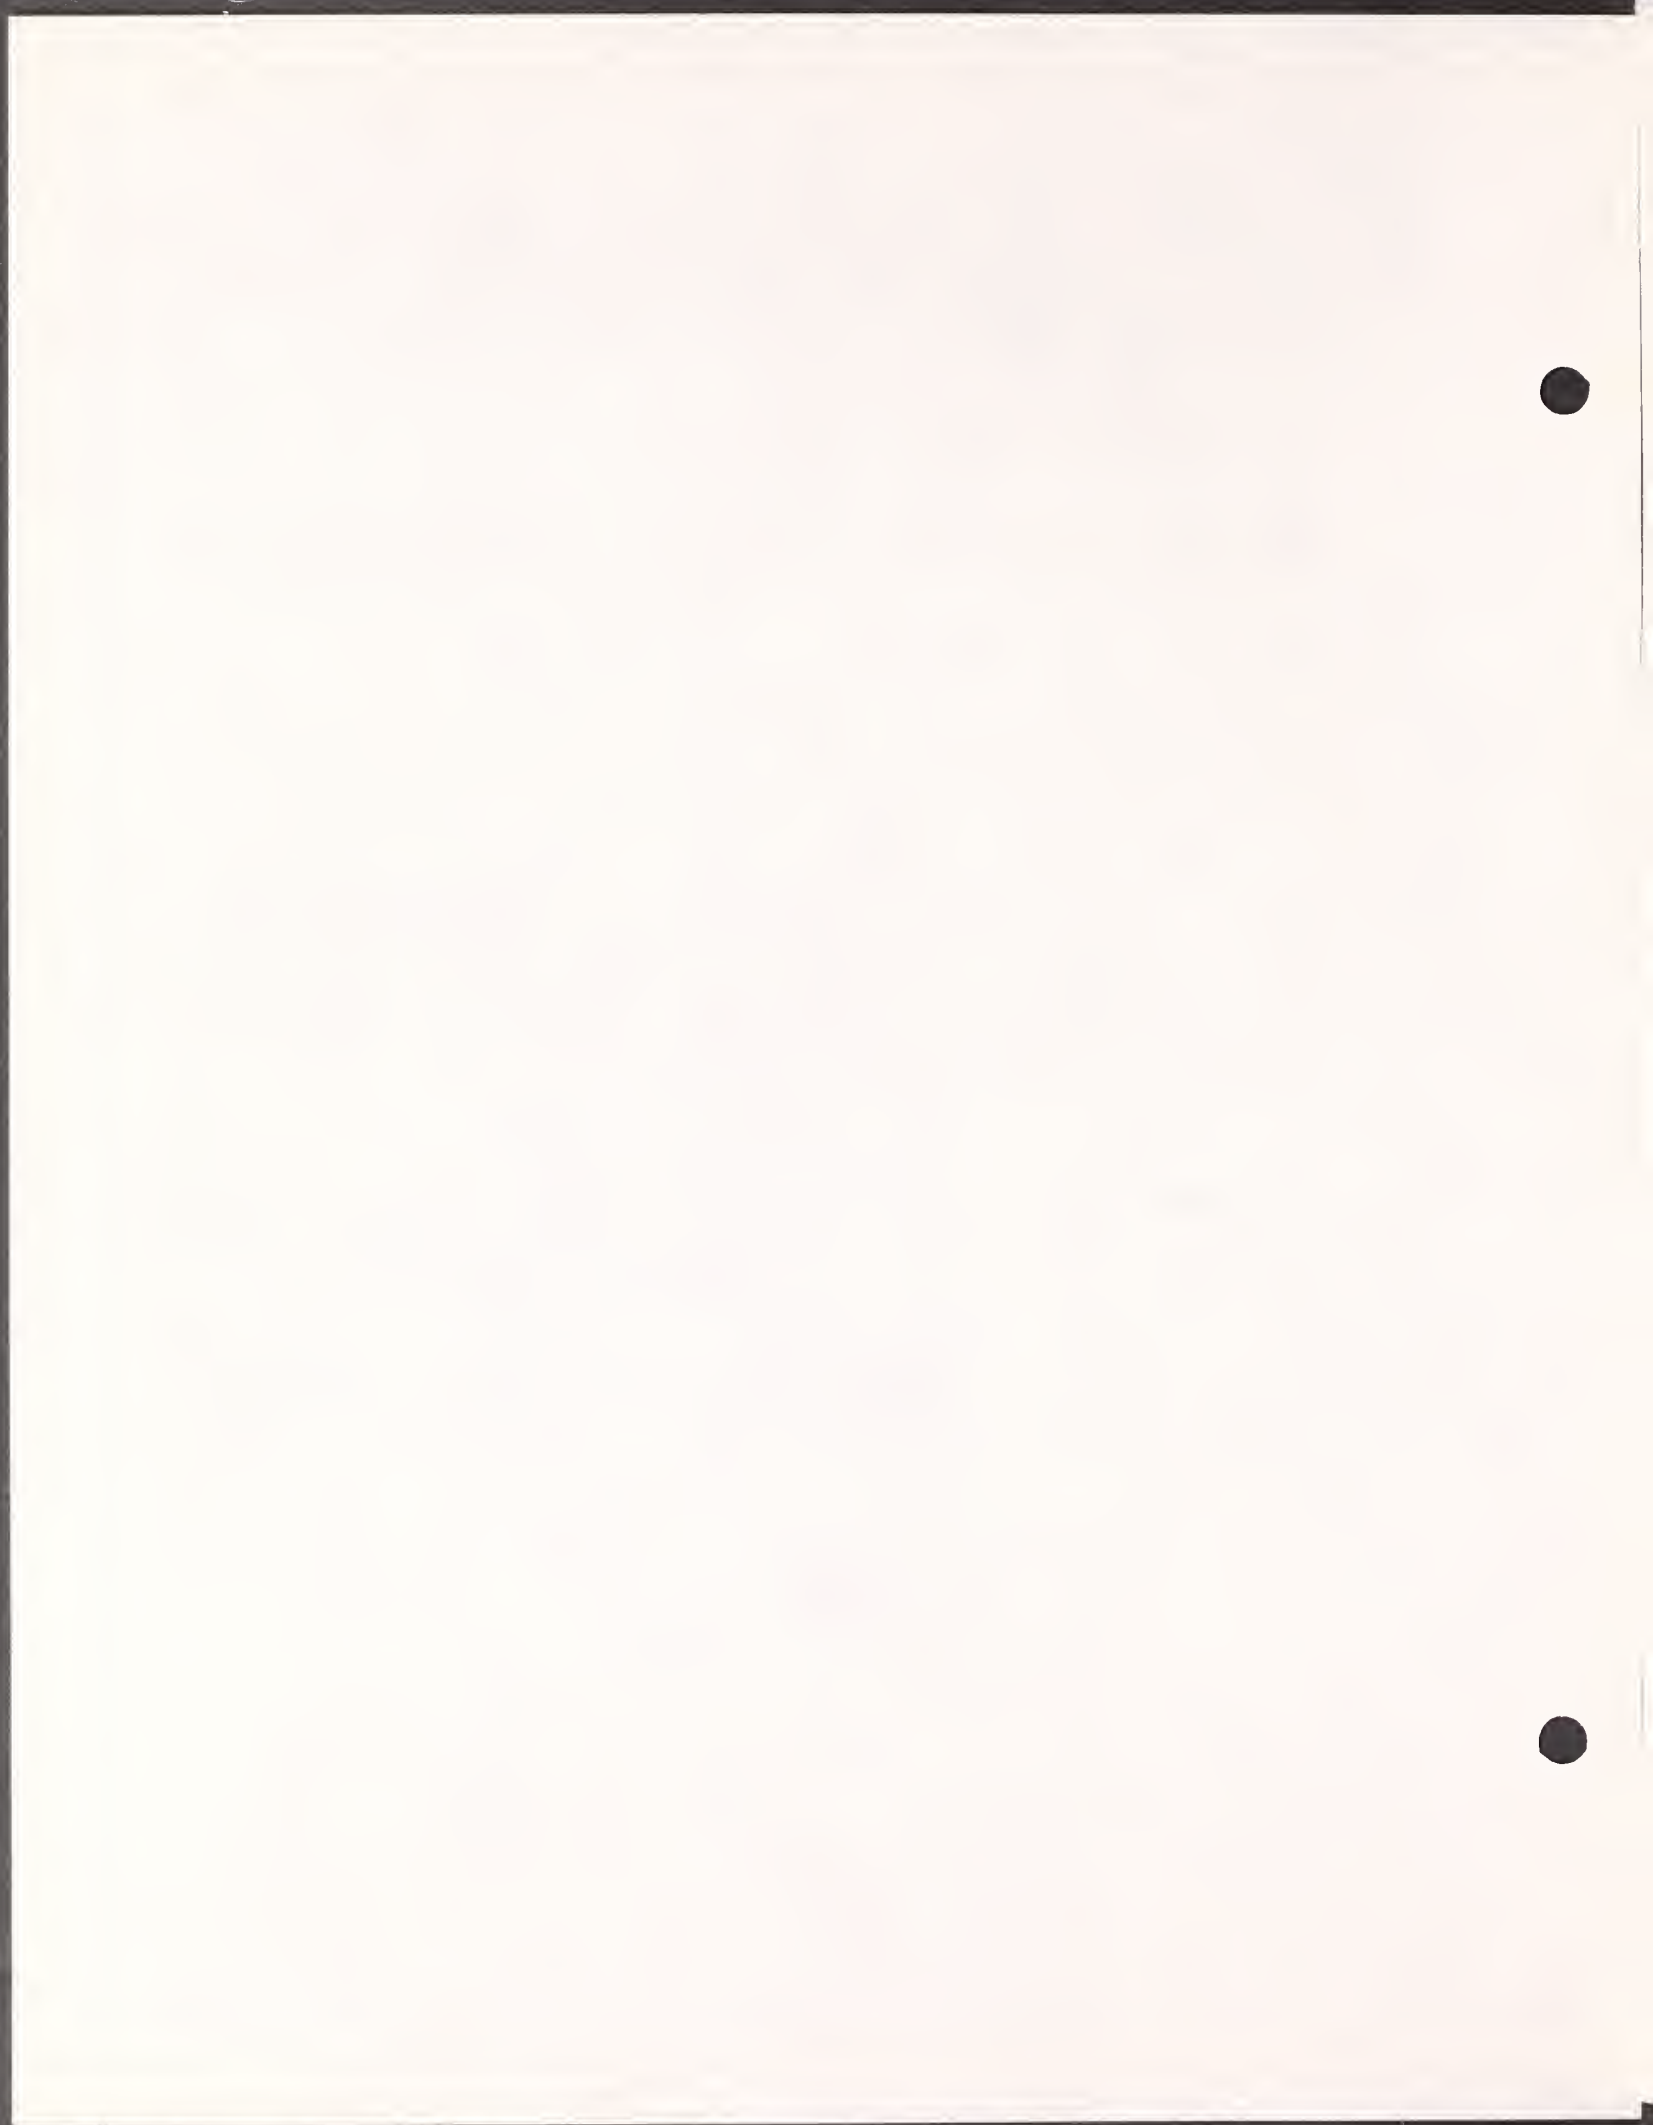

Knew Claimant's Father & Claimant. Both joined the Brit. under Genl. Cunningham. Claimant went to Florida. Claimant's father joined the Brit. again, went with them on Evacuation of 96, (District in S. Carolina), died at Dorchester. Claimant is the eldest son. Knew his Plantation, 30 acres clear, thinks there were 250 acres, had a Team of Wagon horses, good stock.

As of this writing (May 22, 1964) the above is all I have so far been able to find out about Adam & John Fralick who settled in Nova Scotia.

I am indebted to two ladies in Halifax who were suggested to me by the Halifax Archives as researchers. Their fees were modest and the work exacting. They are:

Mrs. K.L. Dawson
6080 South Street
Halifax, N.S.

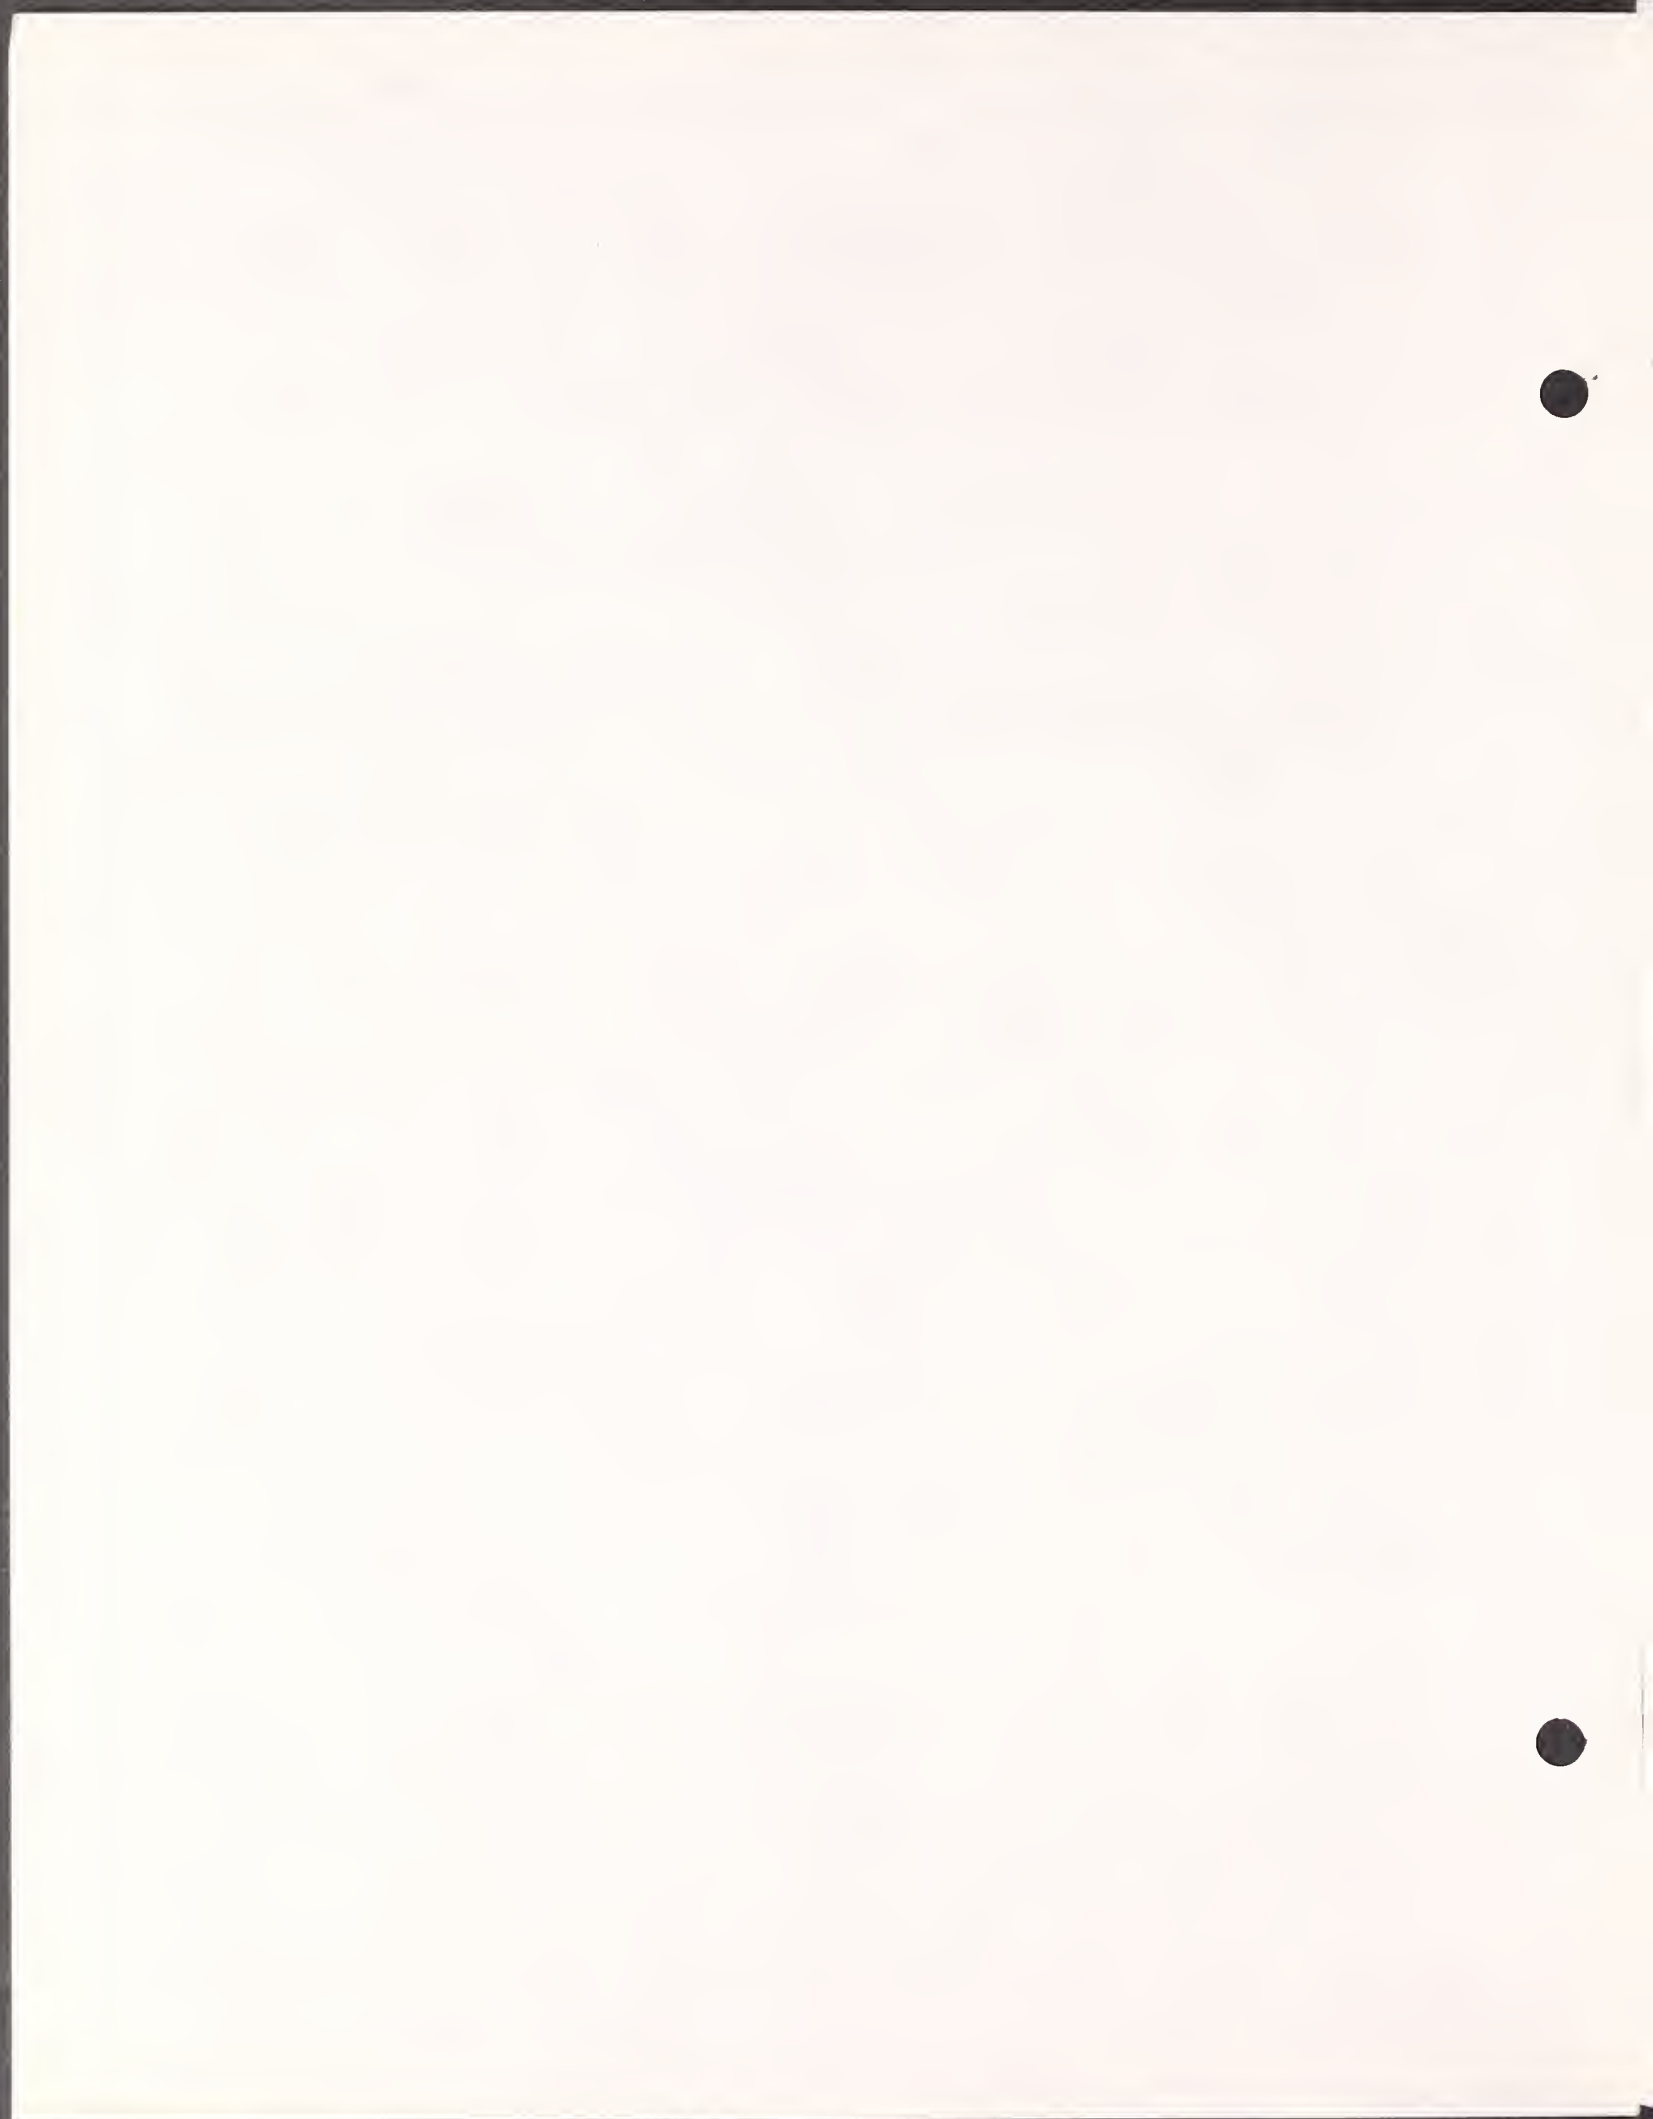

Miss Muriel Edwards
1392 Seymour St.
Halifax, N.S.

I do not know at this point what happened to Adam after he came to Ontario. It seems strange that there is no evidence of his life here. As mentioned earlier, he may have settled in Quebec. He was here however, when he applied for land as his land petition in the Ottawa Archives attest. I will keep searching and I hope to be able to add the final chapter to his story. I suspect very strongly that he can be tied into our branch of the family somewhere.

One more bit of evidence comes to light. In the public archives in Ottawa there is a list of leaders proposed for leading the settlers into Ely Township, Shefford County, Quebec. John Fralick of Highgate Vermont appears on this list. There is no date on the list.

We have a record of Adam in this area about 1840 in Smith's Canada as mentioned earlier. Since Adam and John were together in Nova Scotia, it seems logical that they would settle close together. Adam near Cornwall and John across the river in Ely Township.

(b) George Frelig (Fralick etc.)

Canon E.A. Harris wrote a brief history of the family of Frelig, Fralick etc. These notes are in the Public Archives in Halifax.

The notes say that George came on the ship "Gale" in 1751 from Heissen in Germany. George was born in 1718. He came to Halifax and re-moved to Lunenburg when it was founded in 1753.

Canon Harris is deceased now and so I could not verify the above. He lived at Mahone Bay, Lunenburg County.

Canada was French in 1751 although England held some settled areas in Nova Scotia. At this time they were trying to settle these areas to counteract the French influence. England did bring settlers from the Old Country and also from the English Colonies in New England. It is highly probable however, that George came from the last mentioned where there were quite a number of Fralicks already.

We have to take the Rev. Harris at his word on this matter. It would have been quite possible for George to have come direct from Germany. Most likely via England.

Cannon Harris' notes are not well laid out. It is difficult to see where one family ends and another begins. However, since the Fralicks of Nova Scotia are not our branch and do not have any direct connection with us, we include the family only for the reason of defining the separation of the group from us in Canada. George, the original settler in Nova Scotia, probably is connected with the Fralicks in the Hudson Valley of New York. He most likely came from there rather than direct from Europe.

We include also a list of Fralicks at present living in the Halifax area. The information in this note could be of interest to someone in the future if he was interested in the Nova Scotia Branch. We include it for that reason and to make the record as complete as possible.

Mrs. K.L. Dawson, 6080 South St., Halifax, has been of great help in my hunt for information in that Province. The Public Archives in Halifax contain a considerable number of documents in which Fralicks are mentioned.

Most of the George Fralick Clan are in Lunenburg County, whereas Adam was in Rawdon.

The Province House Library in Halifax also have some records.

As mentioned, Cannon Harris' Genealogy is not well laid out and in some parts lacks continuity. We reproduce it here as received.
